A HOLY WEEK AND PASCHA LIKE NO OTHER

The old Yiddish proverb, “We plan, God laughs,” expresses a truth everyone can relate to. At every stage of life we make plans, setting out where we want to go and imagining what we will be like when we have “arrived.” But things have a way of turning out not quite as we hoped or expected.

After the lockdown during Holy Week and Easter 2020, all of us were looking forward to coming together as a parish family this year for Pascha. A COVID 19 surge in the USA and the state of Michigan touched Saints Constantine and Helen deeply, as Father Teodor and his family were all hit with the virus. Father’s extended hospital stay and home rest and recuperation meant that we were without a parish priest for Holy Week. We are so grateful to His Eminence Metropolitan Nicholas, Fr. Vasilios Pliakas, Nick Lionas Assistant to the Metropolitan, and our Chanters for a week of beautiful, meaningful services. Thanks also to our Metropolis Co-Chancellor, Fr. Nicolaos Kotsis, who supported our parish through this difficult time, and offered a Paraklesis service for complete healing for Father and his family, when he was in the hospital.

Things weren’t always perfect, but we are grateful that we, like God, are able to laugh and not take ourselves too seriously. The Anastasi service on Saturday night was held outside, to accommodate larger crowds than our pandemic-capacity limits would allow. It was so windy that evening that parishioners (and clergy!) had trouble keeping the flame going. But when it’s windy outside, you get creative – even a parking cone can come in handy in keeping your candle lit!

A Message from Father Teodor

Some people will tell you that you are the result of your ancestry, that you cannot rise above what you inherited from your parents or grandparents. Your genetic 'luggage' will determine your character and you should be satisfied with whatever that is.

Other people will tell you that you are the result of your circumstances and your environment. The condition in which you find yourself will establish the way you are.

People may find excuses at times when they should act or assume responsibility. There are too many people who do not use the 'talents' they were given; they don't dare to make decisions, do not attempt to make the most of themselves; who choose to stay small, spiritually, intellectually or physically, when they could be great.

We can choose to be great!

In Chapter 24 of the book of Joshua in the Old Testament, upon entering Canaan, Joshua stood in front of the Israelites and asked them to choose to worship God instead of the idols worshipped by the people in that land. He did not tell them to do as the circumstances impose. He called them to choose the right thing! Hear what he said:

"... Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve ... but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:15.)

Joshua was in no doubt about his ability to choose. He made the choice with a certainty and determination we all admire.

As we come out of the COVID pandemic, we all have a choice to make: Am I going back to church, livestream the services at home or skip it altogether? Why should I be there?

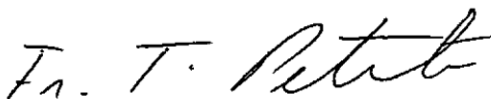

The answer for us as Orthodox Christians should be obvious: Communion. Holy Communion is a crucial aspect of gathering for Orthodox worship that no streaming service can replicate. It points also towards an even bigger issue: being part of the Body of Christ, which is the church. Something happens when we are physically present together that is simply not possible when we log in online.

On the outside, the church may seem weaker during these times. But the church is a visible witness of the reality of God's Kingdom. The church will outlast all other human institutions. It will outlast the pandemic, the hurricanes, the fires, the floods, and the inequalities in our world. Our participation guarantees this!

I hope that as soon as you are able, you will choose to come worship with us. Our circumstances may still be less than ideal, but the long-term benefits of church worship for our families far outweigh the hassle of being there on Sunday morning.

Whether I feel excited about it or not (and usually I do!), the church is my family, and I cannot be who I am meant to be without it.

"... Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve ... but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:15.)

Fr. Teodor

SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY!

Our traditional Sunday of Orthodoxy procession of the icons was held on March 21st. On this day we celebrate the victory over the Iconoclasts, and the restoration of icons into our churches and into our homes. While we were not all able to gather together on the solea, our parishioners, young and old, held their icons up with pride! Our parish council members followed Father and the Altar servers in the procession, carrying our first icons, newly arrived from Greece. After the procession, Father Teodor walked again through the church to raise and bless the icons of all the children.

ICONOGRAPHY PROGRESS REPORT: ICONOSTASIS INSTALLATION HAS BEGUN!

This has been an exciting couple of months for our parish, as installation of the new icons on the Iconostasis has begun! While shipping and travel complications due to COVID have caused some small delays, the 4 main large icons (Saints Constantine and Helen, Panagia, Jesus, and St. John the Baptist), and 8 of the Feast Day icons across the top have been installed. We have received delivery on the 4 remaining large Iconostasis icons (St. Nicholas, St. Anthony, and Holy Archangels Michael and Gabriel), and are expecting delivery on the 4 remaining small Feast Day this month. In the coming weeks, those will also be installed. The mosaic icons that were removed from the Iconostasis are being stabilized to prevent any further decay and will be hung in the hallway across from the church bookstore.

The icons of the Evangelist St. Matthew, St. Gregory of Nyssa and St. Cyril of Alexandria are still available for sponsorship, and we are still in need of general donations of any amount to complete our Phase One fundraising. Those interested in sponsoring an icon, please talk to Father Teodor or contact the church office for more information.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER 2021

MOTHERS DAY RECOGNITION FOR PRESBYTERA ROXANA

Mother's Day is always special at Sts. Constantine and Helen! This year, keeping with the annual tradition, our St. Helen Philoptochos provided colorful flowers for all the Moms and Yiayias as they entered church; and as a special surprise, our Moms' Group used the occasion to honor Presbytera Roxana! At the end of the service, Corrin Stamatakos, our Moms' president, gave her a small gift and spoke beautifully of the love, support, and leadership Presbytera quietly exudes... and the positive role model she represents. Here is a small excerpt from Corrin's words to Presbytera:

"We belong to a very traditional and special church... led by an amazing priest... that is supported by a wife... who also is a mother! We are able to witness, on a daily, weekly, and annual basis, what a mother's touch like hers can do to strengthen a community.

Presbytera's role as a mother brings a "real world normalcy" and a motherly perspective that many churches don't have. Think about it! In addition to holding a job, Presbytera has two teenagers in the house and a husband with a very stressful job who is not around much of the time. She's hip and funny, is a great cook, and she has a love for fashion. And for us here at church, Presbytera often leads quietly, without recognition, and certainly without any expectation. She supports Father, Nicole, and Irene, and ultimately our congregation, with steadfast love, a commitment to being present, and a constant smile on her face. Her modest presence, sincere concern for all of us, and relentless support of Father Teodor and the girls serve as one of the best examples of the kind of mother I would like to be."

SAINTS CONSTANTINE AND HELEN FEAST DAY THANK YOUS!

Many thanks to the visiting clergy who joined us for Sts. Constantine and Helen Feast Day services this week: His Eminence Metropolitan Nicholas, Fr. Nicolaos Kotsis, Fr. Paul Patitsas, Fr. Nicholas Marcus, and Fr. Anthony Cook. We were most of all thankful that we have Fr. Teodor back serving with his brother priests, to celebrate the feast day of our parish! Thanks also to Olga Drummond and the ladies of the Philoptochos for preparing and serving loukoumades after the vespers service on Thursday evening. We all enjoyed our “carry out” treat!
